Lions Return Home to Break Streak

BRIEFLY

The Loyola Marymount University baseball team returns to Page Stadium following a four-game road trip. The road wasn't friendly to the Lions, as they lost all four by a combined total of five runs, with three of the losses coming in the bottom of the final inning. On the season, the Lions are 3-4 in one-run games, and enter a rematch against San Diego State, Tuesday, March 20 on a five-game skid. It is the longest streak since the 1999 season. Following the mid-week contest against the Aztecs, the Lions will take on San Francisco in a three-game set at Page Stadium in West Coast Conference play.

The Lions will try to break a four-game WCC skid after being swept for the first time since 1998 (at Hawaii) at Santa Clara.

SAN DIEGO STATE...

With exactly a week between their last meeting in San Diego, the two teams will go at again on Tuesday, March 20 at Page Stadium. In the first meeting between the two teams, the Aztecs came behind and scored five runs in the final three innings for the 6-5 win. The Lions built a 5-1 lead with junior C.J. Wilson leading an offensive charge, finishing the game 3-for-4 with two RBI. However, the Aztecs got a pair of runs in both the seventh and eighth innings to tie the game. In the bottom of the ninth with runners on the corners and two outs, reliever Justin Abreu, seeing his first action of the season, balked to score Traber Lee for the game winner. Lee has been the hot bat for the Aztecs, leading the team with a .368 batting average. Following the win against the Lions, San Diego State went onto sweep UNLV in conference play. They enter Tuesday's game on a four-game winning streak and winners of six of their last eight. They are 14-9 on the season.

SAN FRANCISCO...

San Francisco enters the weekend series in WCC play on a rebound. After being swept by Santa Clara, the Dons rebounded, winning their first two against Gonzaga. They will take on the Bulldogs on Monday, March 19 to finish the three game set. Entering Monday's game, the Dons were 12-10 on the season and 2-3 in the conference. Preseason All-American candidate Taggart Bozied has lived up to billing with a .352 batting average and three homeruns. He is tied for the team lead with seven doubles. However, leading the Dons is Steve Booth who leads the team

THE COACH...LMU Head Coach Frank Cruz (Pepperdine, '83) enters his fifth season at Loyola Marymount with a mark of 128-109-1. The Lions 40 wins in 2000 is fourth all-time at LMU for wins in a season, and for their efforts, Cruz was named the West Coast Conference Coach of the Year. It is his second coach of the year honor. He first earned the honor in 1998. Cruz entered the baseball coaching ranks as the head coach at University High School in Los Angeles. He coached there for eight seasons before accepting an assistant coaching position at USC under head coach Mike Gillespie. Cruz coached at USC for four years before being named the 6th head coach in school history at LMU. Two years ago, Cruz was named Recruiter of the Year by Collegiate Baseball after signing 10 recruits to play for the Lions in 1998, six of which were drafted. In just four seasons, Cruz has guided the Loyola Marymount University baseball program to three West Coast Conference titles. Establishing a major turnaround with the program, Cruz has posted back-to-back-to-back 30-plus win seasons. LMU was 21-39 three years ago in Cruz's first season. The Lions finished 34-23-1 in 1998, 33-28 in 1999 and 40-19 a year ago. Cruz has also guided the Lions to three-consecutive NCAA Regional appearances. In addition, on Feb. 1, 2000, Cruz was named an assistant coach for the 2000 USA Baseball National Team and led the to a first place finish in international play.

with a .409 batting average. He and Jesse Foppert (.406) are one-two for the Dons in batting. Foppert leads the Dons with 16 RBI and a .672 slugging percentage. He is tied with Bozied with three homeruns. On the season, the Dons are hitting a .281 clip as a team and average 5.3 runs per game. The Dons pitching staff has been solid, allowing a 4.11 ERA on the season. At 4-1 on the season, Foppert has shown he can do it both ways. He leads the team with a 3.28 ERA in eight appearances. He also has a team high 55 strikeouts. The Lions have owned the Dons of late, sweeping six games against the Dons in 2000 and winning 10 of the last 12 meetings.

PREVIOUS WEEK...

Loyola Marymount finished a four-game road trip that was unkind to the Lions. In going 0-4 on the week, the Lions lost by a combined five runs, including three coming with the home team at the plate in the last inning. It started with the five run rally by the Aztecs, getting the winning run in the bottom of the ninth with two outs to win, 6-5. In the first game against Santa Clara, repeated the Aztecs performance, coming from a four-run deficit to score the winning run in the bottom of the ninth with two-out for the 6-5 win. The Lions jumped out to a 5-0 lead against the Broncos in game two. However, the lead once again couldn't hold, as Santa Clara scored four in the fifth and three in the seventh to win 7-5. In the final game of the week, the Lions found themselves down 2-0 heading into the seventh. LMU answered, scoring two in the seventh to send the game into extra innings. Santa Clara scored with two outs in the bottom of the 10th for the win.

HOT AT THE CORNER...

Junior Tommy Perez has been the hot bat for the Lions in the 2001 season. He is second on the team with four homeruns, earning three in the three-game series against the Cal Bears. He had his first multiple homerun game of his career in the final game of the series, getting a three-run shot in the first and a solo shot over left-center in the eighth. How hot was the junior against Cal? He finished the week hitting .615 (8-for-13), with six RBI, three homeruns and one double. He scored seven times and finished the week with a 1.385 slugging percentage. His performance earned him Player of the Week honors in the West Coast Conference, the Lions second straight. He led the team in RBI, homeruns and a .784 slugging percentage. On the season, he is hitting .325 (26-80) with 20 RBI.

FIRST P.O.W...

Senior outfielder David Maffei earned the Lions' first West Coast Conference Player of the Week nod of the season. He finished the Lions' 2-2 week with a .857 slugging percentage. The leftfielder had four hits on the week, all for extra bases. He finished with two double and two homeruns. The 12 total bases drove in eight runs for the Lions, while Maffei himself scored six times. He led the team in runs scored, homeruns, RBI and total bases.

A QUIET LEADER...

Junior first baseman Kris Zacuto quietly became a force for the Lions in the 2000 season. Thus, heading into the 2001 season he has been named a third team All-American by the NCBWA. As one of the returning offensive forces in the Lions' line-up, Zacuto has begun in the middle of the order. While playing primarily at first base a year ago, the junior has been a mainstay at catcher while spending time at first base in late inning situations and recently getting two starts against California. Through the first five games of the season, Zacuto was only hitting .235 with a double and three RBI. However, he has had the hot bat for the Lions and welcomed West Coast Conference play with a bang. In three games against Gonzaga the junior finished hitting .692 (9-for-13). He finished the week with two doubles and his third homer of the season. He has stayed on the hotstreak, and is leading the team with a .363 average. In the four-game set last week, he finished with a .333 average (5-for-15). More leading numbers for Zacuto: He leads the team with 37 hits, eight doubles, a .446 on-base percentage and 51 total bases. He has played in all 27 games for the Lions this season.

SENIOR LEADERS...

The Loyola Marymount University baseball team has five players on the roster who know how to win West Coast Conference championships. Five seniors return to the Lions' roster this season that have been a part of the Lions' last three WCC titles. Outfielder Robert Hirsh, second baseman Jack Brooks, and pitchers James Clelland, Brian Felten and Chris Gray will compete in their fourth and final year in a Lions' uniform. All told, there are 10 seniors on the squad this season.

STEPPING IT UP...

One of the Lions 10 seniors is shortstop Moon Cordero. He decided to step it up in his final run through the West Coast Conference. Against Gonzaga, Cordero finished the week hitting .600, going 6-for-10 from the plate. He scored four times and drove in three runs. He finished with a slugging percentage of .700 and an on base percentage of .636. Against Santa Clara, he kept it going. He finished the week hitting .400 (6-for-15), and had a double. He is currently hitting .308 on the season, raising his average more than 90 points prior to conference play.

CAMEO APPEARANCE...

Senior right-handed pitcher Chris Gray has become a staple out of the bullpen for the Lions in his previous three years with LMU. Entering his final season, Gray has broken into the top 10 list for appearances. With his 19 already this season, appearing in two games last week, he moved into third place all-time, replacing Jeff Cecchin. Darryl Scott holds the record for appearances by a pitcher with 131 in his career that spanned from 1987-90. Last season, LMU's Ben Bonilla moved to sixth all-time with 89 a year ago and was surpassed by Gray's last week. Gray started the season with 74 career appearances. Of Gray's 91 current appearances, only seven have been starts. He holds an 9-11 record with a 6.04 career ERA. He needs 5 to move into second place.

Career Appearances

Name	No.	Years
1. Darryl Scott	131	1987-90
2. Joe Caruso	98	1989-91
3. Chris Gray	93	1998-current
4. Jeff Cecchin	92	1995-98
5. Shawn Hammett	90	1992-95
Tim Layana	90	1983-86
7. Ben Bonilla	89	1997-00

8. Rod Volk	85	1971-74
9. Tom Henderson	82	1973-76
10. Drew Bentz	79	1974-77

A LITTLE OF EVERYTHING...

With a diving play in rightfield that helped the Lions to a 7-6 win over Cal State L.A., C.J. Wilson has shown he can do a little everything for the Lions. In the Lions four-game stint against San Diego State and Santa Clara, Wilson had a breakout series, finishing the week with a .467 average. He was 7-for-15 from the plate, getting his second homerun of the season and adding a double. He had 11 total bases on the week, finishing with a .733 slugging percentage. The junior transfer Santa Ana Junior College scored three times and added six RBI. On the season, he is third on the team with a .318 batting average, and is tied for the team lead with 20 RBI. On the mound, Wilson continues to improve. He leads the team with 38 strikeouts and leads the team with six starts. He is 0-4 with a 5.62 ERA.

ANOTHER TWO-WAY THREAT...

Another two-way threat for the Lions is freshman Joshua Whitesell. The lefty from Rialto High School has been a pleasant addition to the Lions line-up, pitching in nine games and appearing in 15 offensively. He has a 4.76 ERA and has appeared in games as a designated hitter, first baseman and in the outfield. He has a .309 batting average, going 25-for-81 with a team-high seven doubles. Against Cal Poly he finished with his best four-game series of his career. He finished .438 from the plate, getting a team-high seven hits during the four-game set. He added two doubles in the series and finished with a slugging percentage of .562. He also picked up a win on the mound in game one of the doubleheader against the Mustangs, pitching the final 3.1 innings during a 11-10 win in 11 innings. He is now 3-1 on the season, tied with senior James Clelland for the team-high in wins.

CAREER FIRST...

Junior Kayzell Milton, who continues to amaze following full recover from cancer two years ago, showed some rare power against Gonzaga. Milton, who has four hits on the season in playing in late inning and defensive situations, earned his first homerun of his career in game one against the Bulldogs. He finished the week against Santa Clara going 2-for-4 (.500) with a run scored. He leads the team in stolen bases with four and has not been caught stealing.

LIONS PICKED TO WIN COAST AGAIN...

The WCC coaches selected the Lions as the favorite to win the Coast Division followed by Gonzaga. Collegiate Baseball Newspaper also selected LMU to win the Coast Division, while all both polls picked Pepperdine to win the West Division and overall league title.

CRUZ HELPS TEAM USA TO MEMORABLE SUMMER

Loyola Marymount University head baseball coach Frank Cruz became a major frequent flyer this summer. The fifth-year head coach of the Lions was asked to be an assistant coach for the USA National Baseball team this summer, which took him to almost every corner of the world, finishing the tour in Haarlem, The Netherlands. Similar to what he has done with the Lions' program in leading them to three consecutive West Coast Conference titles, Team USA found unparalleled success this summer. Cruz was part of the USA National Team's win over Cuba, 8-5, to claim the championship of the Baseball Week Tournament in Haarlem, The Netherlands Sunday. The win was the second for the National Team over Cuba in four days after defeating the Cubans 9-1. Cruz helped Team USA finish the 2000 Red, White and Blue Tour with a 27-3-1 record, including a 6-0 mark in the tournament. Team USA closed the season with a 21-game unbeaten streak dating to July 7th, which included 20 wins and one tie. The Americans won its last eight games in a row. Cuba dropped to 4-2 in the tournament, with their only losses coming to the USA. The victory gives the National Team a .900 winning percentage, the best in team history. The 1984 team, featuring future Major League All-Stars McGwire, Barry Larkin, Will Clark and B.J. Surhoff, was 37-5-1, for an .881 winning percentage. Cruz and the LMU Lion's program has seen similar success in owning the WCC the past three seasons. In 2000, the Lions posted a 22-8 record in the WCC and 40-19 overall. The team featured six future MLB draft picks and ranked third all-time for victories in a season. Entering his fifth season at LMU, Cruz has posted a 128-109-1 record and has earned two WCC Coach of the Year honors (1998 & 2000).

BREAKING THE WIN BARRIER...

The Lions entered the 2001 season with three consecutive 30-plus win season. The only other time they had three or more consecutive seasons of 30 or more wins was from 1986-1991 when they did it six straight years. The 40 wins in 2000 was the fourth best in LMU history. In 1986, the Lions won a record 50 games... The 2000 season featured a 10-game win streak near the end of the season, as the Lions won 13 of their last 17 and 16 of their last 21 games. The Lions went 12-4 in three-game series last season and were 2-0 when scoring 10 or more runs, which included a 30-run outburst against Saint Mary's.

WCC THREE-PEAT...

Ranked #16 at the time, the Loyola Marymount Lions captured their third straight West Coast Conference Championship with a 6-2 win over Pepperdine University at Page Stadium in game two of the WCC baseball championships. Junior right fielder Jason Aspito led the Lions offensively with his 10th home run of the season. He finished the game 2-for-4, scoring two runs and driving in three RBIs. RHP Michael Schultz went the distance for LMU, he gave up just two runs on four hits while fanning five batters for his ninth win of the season. After using a solid pitching performance from junior Billy Traber to take game one in the best-of-three series, the Lions turned the pitching duties to Schultz. The junior shut down the Waves, going seven before allowing the two runs in the eighth. He closed the game with a perfect ninth to lift the Lions to the title. The Lions took a 1-0 lead in the fifth as Jeff Walker's single drove in Kris Zacuto. The first baseman singled to left with two outs. Schultz faced the minimum in the bottom half to hold the 1-0 lead. LMU broke through in the sixth, scoring three runs thanks to the home run by Aspito. The blast to right that hit the scoreboard scored Scott Walter and Mike Hymes. The Lions added two in the eighth, also with two outs. The rally started with Aspito's single. Aspito scored on Anthony Angel's triple. Angel was driven in by Zacuto's single. For the two game championship series, Angel, the WCC co-player of the year, finished 6-for-10 with two doubles, a triple and four RBI.

PIPE LINE TO THE PROS...

The 2000 season produced some of the top prospects in the country, as five Lions were selected in the first 20 rounds of the 2000 Major League Baseball draft. Junior lefthanded pitcher Billy Traber, who was named second team All-American by Collegiate Baseball, was the 16th overall pick in the draft, being selected by the New York Mets. Right-hander Michael Schultz, who was also a junior, was selected in the second round with the 69th overall pick by the Arizona Diamondbacks. Schultz's and Traber's battery mate, junior Scott Walter, was selected by the Kansas City Royals in the third round with the 74th overall pick. The third team All-America selection was a Johnny Bench Award finalist for the countries best catcher and finished tops in the West Coast Conference with 19 home runs. In the ninth round, the Chicago White Sox selected utility specialist Jason Aspito with the 262nd pick in the 2000 draft. The WCC Co-Player of the Year, senior DIRECTIONS TO LOYOLA MARYMOUNT...Loyola Marymount University is located in the Westchester District of Los Angeles. From Los Angeles International Airport, proceed north on Sepulveda, to Lincoln Boulevard (Highway 1). Continue 1.4 miles west and turn right at Manchester Boulevard. At the first stoplight, approximately two blocks, turn left on Loyola Boulevard. From the 405 Freeway (north or south) exit Manchester Boulevard, turn left coming from the south or right from the north. Continue on Manchester heading west approximately three miles and turn right on Loyola Boulevard. The campus gate will be visible four blocks later. Page Stadium is behind Gersten Pavilion, the first building on the right.

REFERENCE TO LOYOLA MARYMOUNT...When referring to the University, please use its full title, Loyola Marymount University. The abbreviation "LMU" is also acceptable, but please avoid using "Loyola" or "Marymount" alone. Other NCAA institutions including Loyola College in Baltimore, Maryland, Loyola University in New Orleans, Louisiana and Loyola University in Chicago, Illinois are often confused with LMU. Also, no hyphens should be used when spelling out the full name of the University. Thank you for your consideration.

Anthony Angel, was selected by the Houston Astros in the 14th round as the 427th pick in the 2000 draft. Following the draft, the Arizona Diamondbacks remained committed to the Lions pitching, signing senior Ben Bonilla as a free agent.

LIONS AND THE REGIONALS...

The three-time defending West Coast Conference Champions headed into their third straight Regional appearance as the number three seed and facing Cal State Fullerton in the Lions first game. Behind the efforts of second team All-American Billy Traber, LMU earned its first postseason win since the upset of Stanford in 1998, 6-4 over the number two seeded Titans. Traber's complete game, 13-strikeout performance included two bases loaded jams, coming in the fifth and ninth innings with no outs. In the fifth, after the Titans loaded the bases on a walk, a single and an error, Traber struckout the next three batters to get out of the jam. With a 6-3 lead in the ninth, the Titans again loaded the bases. Traber allowed a run on a sac fly and retired the next two batters on a fly and a ground out for his 10th win of the season. David Maffei's two-run home run in the first inning started a four-run outburst for the Lions in the first two innings of the game. The win allowed the Lions to advance in the winner's bracket against Southern California. USC used a three-run eighth and a five-run ninth to break a 5-5 tie in the top of the eighth for a 13-5 win over the Lions. LMU dropped to 0-3 against the Trojans on the season. The Lions allowed 18 hits in the loss, dropping the Lions to an elimination game against Cal State Fullerton, who defeated Virginia Tech to advance. Michael Schultz went seven and two-thirds innings and picked up his sixth loss of the season. Jeff Walker was an offensive spark for the Lions, finishing the game 2-for-4 with two RBI and a double. Senior Ben Bonilla pitched a complete game for the Lions, but picked up his first loss of the season in a 5-2 defeat to Cal State Fullerton, knocking the Lions out of the NCAA Tournament. Fullerton's Ronnie Corona went eight innings and allowed only four hits and struckout 12 Lions for the win. Kirk Saarloos came in the ninth for the save. The Lions had only five players reach base, as Fullerton advanced to the championship against USC. The Trojans would win the regional to advance to the Super Regional. The Lions finished the season 40-19 (22-8).

COACH OF THE YEAR..

Head Coach Frank Cruz, wrapping up his fourth season as skipper of the LMU Baseball program, earned career win No.100 on March 10 when his Lions defeated San Francisco, 16-4, in Game 1 of LMU's three game series at Page Stadium. Cruz has guided LMU to 30-plus win seasons in each of the past three years. The 40 wins this season is his career high here at LMU.

19 YEARS OF BASEBALL AT PAGE STADIUM...

Now in its 19th season as the home of Lion baseball, George C. Page Stadium represents one of the finest collegiate baseball facilities in the country. The facility, which has been the site of filming for numerous commercials as well as feature films, is named in honor of George C. Page, president of the Incentive Aid Foundation. Maynard Kambak, father of LMU baseball alumnus Jeff Kambak, assisted Mr. Page in the stadium's construction that was completed in 1983. LMU's historic first game in Page Stadium was played on March 19, 1983, LMU losing to Cal State Fullerton, 5-1. This season the Lions were an impressive 21-6 at Page Stadium, which was the best winning percentage (.778) in the conference. They enter the 2001 campaign with a five game win streak at Page Stadium. Since 1997, when Frank Cruz took over the program, LMU has established a 71-45 record at Page, a winning percentage of more than 61 percent. That percentage is also the Lions' overall mark at home in the park's 18 years, as the LMU has posted a 316-201 record (.611). Some of the best years have come in the five conference titles the Lions have won while calling Page Stadium home. They are 168-55 in conference championship years at home. The first Page Stadium conference title came in 1986 when the Lions posted a 24-8 record at home that season. The best record came in 1988, when LMU was 30-4 at home (88 percent).

www.LMULions.com
